Van Metre Companies Announces Formation of the Van Metre Companies Foundation, Inc.

Fairfax, VA (June 4th, 2014) – The Van Metre Companies, one of the largest privately held and locally owned homebuilding, development, commercial real estate and property management companies in the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Area, has announced the formation of the Van Metre Companies Foundation, Inc.

The Foundation will be run by a group of current employees who will serve as the Board of Directors and Officers of the Foundation, and will have full discretion for disbursement of the funds of which it generates. Julie van der Vate has been named the Chairman and President of the Foundation, with Candy McCracken, Tom Marable, Rebecca Gizzarelli, and Staci Cichocki, fulfilling the remaining roles on the Board of Directors.

The Van Metre Companies Foundation is dedicated to improving the lives of people in the communities where Van Metre carries on its business. The Foundation will compliment and supports the interests, values, and vision of the Van Metre Companies and it's employees. It will provide financial support to qualified educational, medical, human welfare services, and other 501(c)(e) charitable organizations.

Van Metre Companies is one of the area's most successful private, multi-disciplinary real estate developers having constructed over 16,000 houses and several thousand apartments, as well as office buildings and shopping centers in Northern Virginia. Van Metre communities include master-planned developments, as well as neighborhoods in smaller subdivisions and third-party planned communities. Van Metre can truly be a resident's "builder for life", with home designs for every stage of life. To learn more, visit www.vanmetrehomes.com.
